IRRIGATION PROJECT.

Water Problem For Lucerne Valley Solved In Best Way.

With a capital stock of $50,000, in 25 shares, the Sheep Creek Irrigation company was incorporated in this city yesterday to supply water from Sheep creek and its tributaries in Utah county for the irrigation of land and for other beneficial and useful purposes. The intention of the incorporators is to complete a system of main and lateral canals, to construct storage reservoirs, and to develop the water supply for lands in Lucerne valley, in the northeastern corner of this state. Already several thousand dollars have been expended in the work.

R. C. Chambers is the largest shareholder and vice president; Ellsworth Daggett is president; Adolph Jensen, general manager; C. L. Rood, secretary and treasurer; C. C. Dey is the remaining director.

WALKERS' STORE. WALKERS' STORE.

TOY TIME

The Holiday business has started here in good earnest and we shall be able to lift more pleasure than ever before into Salt Lake's Christmas, with our wonderfully large collection of Toys.

Toy Land beautifully situated in the front basement, will hold a series of reception days until Christmas, so come tomorrow; come whether you are shopping or not---there is plenty to see, but one obvious and admitted truth is---that the time to buy is NOW. Not that you will be too late---even the day before Christmas, but we can serve you better now. Buying for you is more comfortable now. In fact we might run an ad infinitum showing advantages of NOW.

The store was never brighter, fuller of merriment, life and laughter. Bring the children in to see Santa Claus. He will be receiving each day this week and next.
